IN REMEMBRANCE OF THIS MOMENT IN TIME

“The talent of success is nothing more than doing what you can do well; and doing well whatever you do...”-Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

The Senate Scholarship and Awards Committee (SSAC) and the Office of Academic Affairs welcome you to the 38th Annual Honors Convocation. We are ecstatic to be able to gather in person after two years of virtual events.

When we reflect on all that the Hostos community has experienced during the last few semesters, we feel fortunate and honored to be able to celebrate our students' academic accomplishments. Hostos students have faced extraordinary circumstances and challenges while working toward their degrees during the COVID-19 pandemic. It gives us great pleasure to recognize the scholars who have excelled in their academic programs and extracurricular activities, all while balancing countless other commitments and responsibilities.

In addition to working and learning remotely and in person, many of you have been serving on the frontlines of the pandemic as essential workers. Others have taken on the role of teachers, educating your children at home while also managing coursework and other responsibilities. We also continue to hold in our hearts those of you who have found themselves caring for friends and family who have fallen ill and those who endured the loss of loved ones during the pandemic.

The students we recognize today join a class of honorees that exemplify Hostos's long tradition of resilience, determination, and excellence. As you look to the future, we hope that you keep your goals at the forefront, and we are positive that your achievements of today will serve you well for the remainder of your academic and professional journey. We hope that you continue to see Hostos as the engine that moves you forward, and that you always remember there is no limit to your ability to achieve. We anticipate that, for you, this is just the beginning. We could not be prouder of your accomplishments, and we are overjoyed to be able to share this moment with you, your friends, and your family.

Sincerely,

The Senate Scholarship and Awards Committee & Office of Academic Affairs

28th Annual National Character & Leadership Symposium at the U.S. Air Force Academy Participant Award

Presented by Leadership Academy Staff

The annual National Character and Leadership Symposium (NCLS) is the United States Air Force Academy's flagship event on character and leadership. It brings together distinguished scholars, military leaders, corporate executives and world-class athletes to motivate and equip participants for honorable living and effective leadership. In addition, our student honorees were selected to attend the conference at no cost to them based on their involvement in leadership activities on campus, volunteering, and community service. Their participation in the conference aims to enhance their understanding of the importance of sound moral character and good leadership.
