

PRESENTS

CRACKING THE CASE

Forensic Science Insights from CUNY Experts and Alumni

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 11AM – 3PM

FDR ROOM - HOSTOS CAFE

Refreshments will be served

SPEAKERS

Dr. Marta Concheiro

Toxicology Professor at John Jay College of Criminal Justice

Angel Cardenas '22

Pathologist's Assistant
Master's Degree Candidate
at Touro College of Osteopathic Medicine

Adrian Abreu '22

Forensic Science Professional

MODERATED BY

Alejandra Myertson
PRISM Program Director

Dr. Anna Manukyan
Associate Professor and Forensic Science Program Coordinator

Felix O. Sanchez
Alumni Relations Manager - Hostos Community College

Explore the world of forensic science at Cracking the Case, where CUNY experts and Hostos Community College alumni come together to share their knowledge and experiences. This panel will cover real-world case studies, innovative forensic techniques, and the critical role forensic science plays in modern investigations. Gain valuable insights from seasoned professionals and successful alumni who have built careers in this exciting field. Join us for an engaging event that delves into the science and skills behind solving crimes.