

A MESSAGE FROM
THE DIVISION OF CONTINUING EDUCATION &
WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT (CEWD)

CUNY Recovery Corps Some Extra Help - No Extra Cost

CUNY is launching CUNY's Summer Youth Employment Program, which will serve up to 5,000 undergraduate students!

Deadline extended, Wednesday, June 23rd

Here are examples of the kinds of work that Hostos' CUNY Recovery Corps students could do:

- Faculty support on research and projects, etc.
- Peer Advisors/Mentors/Tutors
- New student welcome/orientation
- Coordinating groups of students to serve on a calling campaign for new and returning students.
- Supporting summer bridge programs/summer orientations
- Extending Federal Work-study assignments
- Social Media Support/Student Video Tutorials
- Summer programs
- Research and compile resources on a variety of relevant topics--education, food, technology, professional development, software, social media, events, networking opportunities, etc.; present findings highlights once a week.

- Review your departments website/webpages and provide recommendations (Is it user friendly, expired web pages, etc.)
- Complete student workshops as part of their professional development (Blackboard, CUNYFirst, Succeed at Hostos, etc. and then assign interns to guide students in accessing the campus resources).
- And more!

CUNY RECOVERY CORPS – Site Form

Please complete this form to be added to the list of departments/programs to be considered as work-sites for the CUNY Recovery Corps.
